CALL FOR FINANCING TRANSLATIONS OF WORKS BY MACEDONIAN AUTHORS

The Ministry of Culture finances translations by foreign publishers of distinguished and quality works from Macedonian literature into foreign languages, in the following areas: artistic prose, drama, poetry, essays, children's literature (excluding picture-books and textbooks), anthological and other genre collections in the area of literature intended for a wider circle of readers.

The Call applies to works published in the Republic of Macedonia and the languages of the communities in the Republic of Macedonia.

Only foreign publishers whose main activity is publishing books have the right to apply.

The Call is open throughout the whole year.
